

House rules “Make yourself at home”

We want to make sure that your visit and training at De Werkplaats (hereinafter: “De Werkplaats” or “we”) is and remains fun for everyone. That is why we have set up some house rules, because we believe it is important that you can work out in a sporty, safe and a pleasant environment.

- De Werkplaats is a non-smoking environment;
- Wear correct and safe sportswear and good, clean trainers;
- Always use a towel during the workout;
- Put loose components (weights, dumbbells, etc.) back where they belong after using them;
- Use sealable drinking bottles in the studio;
- Food is only allowed in our lounge;
- It is not allowed to make phone calls in the studio;
- We advise you to use a locker to protect your personal belongings. Store your valuables, jackets, bags or other garments in a locker and don't bring them into the studio. Close the locker by means of a padlock that you bring yourself. After closing time all lockers will be opened by our staff. De Werkplaats shall never be liable for missing personal belongings;
- In order to prevent damage to jewelery and/or injuries we strongly advise you not to wear jewelery during the workout. De Werkplaats shall never be liable for damaged or missing belongings;
- Sexual harassment and or sexual intimacies are not allowed at De Werkplaats;
- Drug use or dealing is prohibited;
- The use of alcohol is prohibited;
- De Werkplaats shall not be liable for loss, theft and accidents in and around the studio.

Breach of one or more of the above house rules can lead to the withdrawal of your membership, without a refund of the membership fee.

By training at De werkplaats you agree to all the above house rules, as well as with our general terms and conditions.
